Royal Wedding 2018: Everything You Need To Know

Prince Harry - the world's most eligible bachelor - and Hollywood starlet Meghan Markle are getting married.

Hundreds will attend. Millions will watch on television. The event will go down in history.

Only The School Times will write the truth about the wedding of the year.

From the date to the dress, here's everything you need to know about the most date in the 2018 calendar: Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's wedding read at page 3.

Shortly after Meghan and Harry announced their plans to marry on November 27, we got our first look at the custom diamond engagement ring Prince Harry used to propose. Ms. Markle's ring has been fashioned from a piece of Welsh Gold, gifted by Her Majesty the Queen. Prince Harry's ring will be a Platinum Band with a textured finish. Both rings were crafted in the Cleave workshop.

Wedding? When? What? Where?

The rings were carried to St George's Chapel on the day of the Wedding by The Duke of Cambridge, in his capacity as Best Man.

The wedding took place on May 19, 2018. The ceremony began at 12 p.m. BST (7 a.m. ET), followed by a carriage procession through Windsor at 1 p.m. BST, (8 a.m. ET).

PERMISSION TO MARRY

On March 15, the Queen gave her formal blessing to Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's marriage. The wedding took place on Saturday, 19 may 2018, at St George's Chapel, Windsor. The chapel had previously been the venue for the weddings of Prince Harry's uncle, the Earl of Wessex.

Here's What Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's Wedding Day Was Like

Meghan and Harry's gorgeous wedding ceremony took place at St. George's Chapel at Windsor Castle. After walking down the aisle with her bridesmaids, page boys, and later Prince Charles, Meghan met her groom at the altar of St. George's Chapel. The Most Reverend Michael Bruce Curry delivered a rousing sermon during the ceremony, and the bride and groom said their vows and exchanged rings.

The Wedding Attendants

Meghan decided not have a maid of honor because she had a very close group of friends and did not want to choose one over the others and so, in accordance with royal tradition, her bridesmaids were children. Best Man was Prince William, Duke of Cambridge, brother of the groom.

Ceremony

At 12:00 noon, Meghan entered the chapel by the West Steps along with the bridesmaids and page boys and walked unescorted down the aisle in the nave. Originally, Megan's father Thomas Markle was to meet his daughter at the start of the quire and walk her the rest of the way down the aisle. However, Mr. Markle was unable to attend the wedding due to ill health. Two days before the wedding, Meghan released a statement: "Sadly, my father will not be attending our wedding. I have always cared for my father and hope he can be given the space he needs to focus on his health." The day before the wedding, Kensington Palace released this statement: "Ms. Meghan Markle has asked His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales to accompany her down the aisle of the Quire of St. George's Chapel on her Wedding Day. The Prince of Wales is pleased to be able to welcome Ms. Markle to The Royal Family in this way."

TIPS for English learner

WHAT IS THE MOST EFFECTIVE WAY TO STUDY?

Finding the best way to study is an ongoing process. It isn't something that can be left to the night before the test. You should be constantly improving your study skills to better understand what works (and what doesn't).

DISCOVER SECRETS TO STUDYING EFFECTIVELY THAT WILL HELP YOU
ACE YOUR NEXT TEST.

GET ORGANIZED

Carry a homework planner at all times. Entering homework, projects, tests and assignments as soon as they are assigned will make sure they aren't forgotten about.

PAY ATTENTION IN CLASS

It's important to concentrate and avoid distractions when the teacher is speaking. Practice active listening by concentrating on what's being said and taking notes in your own words. This will help make sure you hear (and understand) what is being taught in class.

ASK QUESTIONS IF YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND

Raise your hand and ask questions if you don't understand something. If you don't feel comfortable asking in front of everyone, write yourself a reminder to talk to the teacher after class.

MAKE A STUDY SCHEDULE/PLAN

When making a study schedule, look at your planner and think about what needs to be accomplished. Think about the types of questions that will be on the test and the topics that will be covered so you know what you should focus on. Set specific goals for each study session, like how many topics you will cover by the end of the session.

REVIEW NOTES FROM CLASS EVERY EVENING

After school, review and expand on the notes from class. Reviewing notes helps move material learned from short-term memory into long-term memory, which will help next time you have a big test
